

MOON-EYED

Meaning: Moon-eyed refers to having large, expressive eyes that convey a sense of wonder or innocence, often reminiscent of the gaze of a cat or a dreamy, enchanting quality.

1. The children gazed at the moon-eyed cat as it prowled through the garden.
2. Her moon-eyed wonder reflected the beauty of the starry night sky.
3. The artist captured the essence of the moon-eyed girl in his latest painting.
4. With moon-eyed innocence, he approached the unfamiliar situation with curiosity.
5. The legend spoke of a moon-eyed creature that roamed the forest under the full moon.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moon-eyed>