MOONLIGHTER

Meaning: A moonlighter is a person who works a second job or engages in additional activities outside of their primary employment, often to pursue personal interests or passions.

1. Many people become moonlighters to pursue their passions outside of their regular jobs.

2. As a moonlighter, she spent her evenings crafting handmade jewelry to sell online.

3. He found that being a moonlighter allowed him to enhance his skills in graphic design while working full-time.

4. The company encouraged creativity, so many employees became moonlighters, exploring various side projects.

5. She balanced her career as a teacher with her moonlighter role as a freelance writer for local magazines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moonlighter