

MORaine

Meaning: Moraine: a mass of earth and stones deposited by a glacier, typically forming ridges or mounds.

1. The hikers marveled at the stunning moraine that had formed at the base of the glacier.
2. As we explored the valley, we noticed the distinct ridges of the moraine peeking through the trees.
3. The ancient moraine told a story of the glacier's movement thousands of years ago.
4. Scientists study moraines to understand the effects of climate change on glacial landscapes.
5. During our trip, we camped near a beautiful moraine that offered breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moraine>