

MORASS

Meaning: Morass: a complicated or confusing situation, often characterized by a lack of clarity or direction, or a muddy area that is difficult to navigate.

1. The project became a morass of conflicting ideas and endless revisions.
2. After the heavy rains, the hiking trail turned into a morass, making it nearly impassable.
3. She felt trapped in a morass of responsibilities that seemed to multiply each day.
4. The political debate devolved into a morass of misinformation and heated accusations.
5. His emotions were a morass of confusion and regret, leaving him unsure of his next steps.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/morass>