

MORBILLOUS

Meaning: Morbillous refers to a rash or symptoms resembling those of measles, often characterized by red spots or blotches.

1. The patient presented with a morbillous rash that raised concerns among the medical staff.
2. In the early stages of the disease, the morbillous symptoms were often mistaken for a common cold.
3. After a thorough examination, the doctor confirmed the diagnosis of a morbillous infection.
4. The morbillous appearance of the skin was alarming to the parents, who rushed their child to the clinic.
5. Public health officials warned of an outbreak, emphasizing the importance of vaccinations to prevent morbillous illnesses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/morbillous>