

MORDICATIVE

Meaning: MORDICATIVE: characterized by a biting or caustic manner, often expressing scorn or disdain.

1. The novel's mordicative tone revealed the author's deep disdain for societal norms.
2. His mordicative remarks during the debate caught everyone off guard and sparked fierce discussions.
3. While her laughter was infectious, her mordicative comments often left a sting that lingered.
4. The film was praised for its mordicative wit, cleverly critiquing the absurdities of modern life.
5. In the poetry reading, the poet's mordicative style captivated the audience with its sharp insights.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mordicative>