

MORON

Meaning: Moron: a person who behaves in a foolish or stupid manner, often disregarding common sense or advice.

1. He acted like a complete moron during the meeting, ignoring everyone's advice.
2. It's hard to believe he could be such a moron after all the training he's had.
3. Calling someone a moron can be hurtful, even if it's said in jest.
4. She felt like a moron for forgetting her best friend's birthday.
5. The movie featured a charming moron who inadvertently saved the day.
6. Calling someone a moron in a heated argument rarely leads to a productive conversation.
7. It's hard to believe that a moron could come up with such a brilliant idea.
8. She realized that her moron of a friend had forgotten to book the tickets again.
9. Even though he acted like a moron at times, his heart was always in the right place.
10. The prank was funny until it turned out to be a moron's plan gone wrong.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moron>