

MORPHOTIC

Meaning: Morphotic: relating to or characterized by changes in form or structure, particularly in art or evolutionary biology.

1. The artist's morphotic style blended traditional techniques with modern interpretations.
2. In the study of evolution, morphotic changes can reveal the adaptive strategies of a species.
3. The scientist presented a morphotic model to explain the development of complex biological structures.
4. Her research focused on the morphotic processes that govern tissue regeneration in amphibians.
5. The conference highlighted the importance of morphotic analysis in understanding genetic variations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/morphotic>