

MORTIFICATION

Meaning: Mortification is a feeling of great embarrassment or shame.

1. Her mortification was palpable when she realized she had forgotten her best friend's birthday.
2. He felt a deep sense of mortification after tripping and falling in front of the entire class.
3. Despite her mortification over the embarrassing incident, she managed to laugh it off with her friends.
4. The mortification of being called out for his mistake made him wish he could disappear.
5. Facing the crowd after the mistake filled him with an overwhelming sense of mortification.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mortification>