

MORTIFIEDNESS

Meaning: Mortifiedness: the state of being deeply embarrassed or ashamed.

1. Her mortifiedness was evident as she realized she had forgotten her lines during the play.
2. In the depths of his mortifiedness, he wished he could disappear from the party.
3. She tried to hide her mortifiedness when she accidentally tripped on stage.
4. His mortifiedness turned into laughter when he noticed everyone else had made the same mistake.
5. The mortifiedness she felt after sending that text to the wrong person was overwhelming.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mortifiedness>