

MORTIFIER

Meaning: Mortifier: a person or thing that causes great embarrassment or humiliation.

1. The mortifier of his reputation was the scandal that spread like wildfire.
2. She felt like a mortifier when she accidentally revealed his secret in front of everyone.
3. The mortifier of their friendship was a misunderstanding that could have been easily resolved.
4. In moments of regret, he became his own mortifier, replaying past mistakes in his mind.
5. The harsh criticism served as a mortifier, making her second-guess her abilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mortifier>