

MORTIFYINGLY

Meaning: MORTIFYINGLY: in a manner that causes great embarrassment or humiliation.

1. She realized, mortifyingly, that she had been talking to the wrong person for the past hour.
2. The mortifyingly awkward silence that followed her joke made everyone uncomfortable.
3. He discovered, mortifyingly, that he had accidentally sent a private message to the entire group chat.
4. When she tripped on stage, mortifyingly, her face turned bright red from embarrassment.
5. It was mortifyingly clear that he had forgotten her birthday, despite their plans.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mortifyingly>