

MORULATION

Meaning: Morulation is the process of forming a morula, a solid ball of cells resulting from the division of a fertilized egg during the early stages of embryonic development.

1. The process of morulation is crucial in the early stages of embryonic development.
2. Researchers are studying morulation to understand how cell differentiation begins.
3. During morulation, a single-cell zygote divides into a multicellular cluster known as a morula.
4. The transition from a zygote to a morula showcases the complexity of cellular development.
5. Understanding morulation can provide insights into various reproductive technologies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/morulation>