

MOTH

Meaning: A moth is a primarily nocturnal insect related to butterflies, typically characterized by a stout body, dull coloration, and broad wings, often attracted to lights.

1. The moth fluttered softly around the porch light, drawn by its warm glow.
2. She was fascinated by the delicate patterns on the wings of the moth resting on the window.
3. As the night fell, the garden came alive with the gentle dance of moths seeking nectar.
4. In the quiet of the attic, a lone moth had found refuge among the dusty old books.
5. The researcher documented the various species of moths she encountered during her field study.
6. The moth fluttered softly around the porch light, drawn by its glow.
7. As night fell, a large moth landed on the window, its wings shimmering in the moonlight.
8. She found a delicate moth resting on the flower, its patterns resembling faded ink.
9. Despite its fragile appearance, the moth was surprisingly resilient against the elements.
10. In the quiet garden, the moth danced among the shadows, a ghostly figure in the dark.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moth>