

MOUILL

Meaning: Mouill (noun): a term referring to a wet or moist surface, often used in artistic contexts to describe a technique or effect that enhances depth and richness in visual works or to describe the fresh, glistening appearance of a landscape after rain.

1. The artist used a unique technique to create a mouill that added depth to the painting.
2. After the rain, the garden was a beautiful mouill, glistening under the sunlight.
3. He described the mouill of the landscape as a shimmering veil of water droplets.
4. During the evening, the mouill from the nearby river created a soothing atmosphere.
5. The photographer captured the perfect moment when the mouill transformed the ordinary scene into something magical.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mouill>