

MOULT

Meaning: To moult means to shed old feathers, hair, or skin to make way for new growth, typically in response to seasonal changes.

1. Birds typically moult their feathers in preparation for migration.
2. The dog began to moult as the weather turned warmer.
3. After the snake had finished its meal, it started to moult its old skin.
4. Moulting is a natural process that allows animals to adapt to changing seasons.
5. She noticed her parrot was moulting and required more attention during that time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moult>