

MOUNCH

Meaning: MOUNCH (verb): To eat something with a continuous, often noisy action, typically involving chewing or biting.

1. She watched the puppy munch on his favorite toy, oblivious to the world around him.
2. As the children gathered around the picnic table, they began to munch on the freshly baked cookies.
3. The rabbit eagerly munched on the crisp lettuce, savoring each bite as if it were a gourmet meal.
4. He couldn't help but munch on the popcorn during the thrilling movie, despite trying to stay quiet.
5. After a long hike, they sat down to munch on their packed sandwiches, enjoying the scenic view.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/munch>