

MOUNTING

Meaning: Mounting refers to the increasing or growing intensity of something, such as pressure or shadows.

1. The mounting pressure from the upcoming deadline was beginning to stress everyone in the team.
2. As the sun began to set, the mounting shadows created a dramatic effect across the landscape.
3. He felt a mounting sense of excitement as the concert date drew closer.
4. The mounting evidence against the suspect led to his arrest by the authorities.
5. She carefully examined the mounting brackets before installing the new shelf.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mounting>