

MOUSE-EAR

Meaning: Mouse-ear refers to a type of small, herbaceous plant belonging to the genus Cerastium, characterized by soft, hairy leaves and often producing small white flowers.

1. The delicate mouse-ear plant bloomed with tiny, soft flowers in the spring.
2. In his childhood, he often found mouse-ear leaves while exploring the meadows.
3. The herbalist recommended mouse-ear as a natural remedy for various ailments.
4. As we hiked through the forest, we spotted a patch of mouse-ear nestled among the rocks.
5. The texture of the mouse-ear leaves resembled that of fine velvet, making them a favorite among children.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mouse-ear>