

MOUSE

Meaning: Mouse: a small rodent commonly found in homes and fields, or a hand-held device used to control a computer's cursor.

1. The little mouse scurried across the kitchen floor, searching for crumbs.
2. In the world of technology, a mouse is an essential tool for navigating computers.
3. The cat watched intently as the mouse peeked out from its hiding spot.
4. During the science lesson, the students learned about the anatomy of a mouse.
5. She decided to adopt a pet mouse, intrigued by their playful nature.
6. The cat sat patiently, watching the mouse scurry across the floor.
7. She clicked the mouse to navigate through the presentation without hesitation.
8. A small mouse peeked out from behind the kitchen cabinet, searching for crumbs.
9. He always felt a twinge of sympathy for the mouse in the classic cartoon.
10. The computer's mouse malfunctioned, making it difficult to complete the project.
11. She watched in awe as the tiny mouse peeked out from its hole in the wall.
12. After a long day at work, he finally settled down to play his favorite computer game, using a wireless mouse.
13. The researchers observed the mouse's behavior to understand its response to different stimuli.
14. In the garden, the mouse nibbled on seeds while staying alert for any signs of danger.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mouse>