

MOUTH-MADE

Meaning: MOUTH-MADE refers to expressions or sounds produced using the mouth, often emphasizing their artistic or creative qualities.

1. The artist created a unique sculpture that showcased the beauty of mouth-made expressions.
2. In the workshop, they experimented with mouth-made sounds to enhance their music.
3. During the performance, the actor's mouth-made whispers captivated the audience's attention.
4. The chef demonstrated how to prepare mouth-made pasta from scratch, emphasizing the importance of technique.
5. A mouth-made melody echoed through the hall, leaving everyone in awe of its simplicity and charm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mouth-made>