

MOUTHER

Meaning: 'Mouther' refers to a person who speaks excessively or dramatically, often exaggerating or expressing emotions in a way that may be perceived as over-the-top or insincere.

1. The child was a terrible mouther, always exaggerating his stories to impress his friends.
2. During the argument, she was a real mouther, letting her emotions get the better of her.
3. As a mouther, he often failed to consider how his words would affect those around him.
4. In the world of competitive speaking, being a skilled mouther can make all the difference.
5. Her reputation as a mouther meant that people often took her words with a grain of salt.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mouther>