

MOUTHLESS

Meaning: MOUTHLESS: lacking a mouth or the ability to speak.

1. The creature emerged from the shadows, a mouthless entity that communicated through an eerie resonance.
2. In the surreal painting, a mouthless figure reached out as if to speak, yet no words escaped its lips.
3. Scientists were baffled by the discovery of a mouthless species that thrived in the depths of the ocean.
4. As she recounted her dreams, she felt like a mouthless observer, unable to articulate the vivid images in her mind.
5. The story featured a mouthless doll that haunted children, its silent gaze evoking an unsettling sense of dread.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mouthless>