

MOWN

Meaning: MOWN (verb): the past participle of mow, meaning to cut down grass or plants, typically using a mower, resulting in a neatly trimmed area.

1. The lawn was freshly mown, leaving behind a crisp, green carpet.
2. After the field was mown, the players could finally practice their drills.
3. She loved the smell of freshly mown grass on warm summer days.
4. The garden looked transformed once the overgrown weeds were mown down.
5. He enjoyed the tranquility of the neighborhood after the lawns had been mown.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mown>