

MUCID

Meaning: MUCID: characterized by being moldy, musty, or damp, often resulting in an unpleasant smell or appearance.

1. The old, mucid bread in the corner of the pantry was a stark reminder of the neglect in the kitchen.
2. As the rain poured, the once vibrant garden became a mucid landscape, with puddles forming in every crevice.
3. The scientist studied the mucid layers of mold that had developed on the decaying organic matter.
4. He recoiled at the sight of the mucid film that coated the surface of the stagnant pond.
5. In the dim light of the cave, the mucid walls glistened, hinting at the dampness that pervaded the air.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mucid>