

MUCIFORM

Meaning: Muciform refers to a substance or coating that is gelatinous or mucus-like in texture, often serving functions such as moisture retention or protection.

1. The muciform coating of the plant helped to retain moisture in the arid environment.
2. In his research, he noted that the muciform secretion from the marine organism served as a protective barrier.
3. The doctor explained that the muciform discharge was a common symptom in patients with certain infections.
4. She marveled at the muciform texture of the dessert, which added a unique mouthfeel to the dish.
5. The scientist was fascinated by how the muciform properties of the algae could be utilized in biomedical applications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muciform>