

MUCK

Meaning: Muck refers to wet, muddy, or dirty material, often consisting of a mixture of soil and water.

1. The children laughed as they played in the muck after the rain.
 2. She had to wash her boots thoroughly to remove the muck from the field.
 3. His hands were covered in muck after digging in the garden all afternoon.
 4. The old barn was filled with muck, making it a challenging place to work.
 5. In the swamp, the muck was thick and challenging to navigate.
 6. The children giggled as they played in the muck after the rain.
 7. She carefully cleaned her boots, trying to remove the stubborn muck stuck to the soles.
 8. The old barn was filled with muck, remnants of years of neglect and animal waste.
 9. He didn't mind getting dirty, but the muck made his clothes feel heavy and uncomfortable.
 10. After the storm, the streets were covered in muck, making it difficult for cars to pass.
 11. The children played in the muck after the rain, splashing and laughing without a care.
 12. The farmer was frustrated as he tried to drive his tractor through the thick muck in the field.
 13. After a long hike, my shoes were caked in muck, making it difficult to walk.
 14. She quickly realized that the project would require more than just enthusiasm; it was going to be a real muck job.
 15. With a heavy sigh, he stepped into the muck, knowing it would take hours to clean up afterward.
 16. The kids jumped into the muddy puddles, splashing muck everywhere.
 17. After the rain, the path was covered in thick muck, making it hard to walk.
 18. He used a shovel to clear the muck from the bottom of the pond.
 19. The farmers worked tirelessly to remove the muck from their fields after the storm.
 20. They needed to wash their boots after trudging through the muck at the construction site.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muck>