

MUCONIC

Meaning: Muconic refers to a type of organic compound, specifically an acid, that serves as an intermediate in chemical synthesis, especially in the production of pharmaceuticals and other derivatives.

1. Muconic acid is an important intermediate in the synthesis of various pharmaceuticals.
2. Researchers are exploring the potential of muconic derivatives in sustainable chemical processes.
3. The muconic pathway has gained attention for its role in producing biofuels from renewable resources.
4. In organic chemistry, understanding muconic compounds can lead to innovative material developments.
5. The stability of muconic acids under different conditions is crucial for their industrial applications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muconic>