

MUCOUS

Meaning: MUCOUS: relating to or characterized by the production of mucus, a thick, slippery fluid that lubricates and protects tissues.

1. The doctor explained that the mucoid secretion helps to protect the lining of the stomach.
2. After the cold, she noticed an increase in mucoid production in her nasal passages.
3. The mucous membranes play a crucial role in trapping pathogens and keeping the body hydrated.
4. He felt a thick, mucous consistency in his throat that made it difficult to swallow.
5. The laboratory test revealed an abnormal amount of mucous fluid in the patient's lungs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mucous>