

MUDDLER

Meaning: Muddler: a tool used in bartending and cooking to crush or mix ingredients, such as herbs or fruits, to release their flavors.

1. The bartender reached for the muddler to crush the fresh mint leaves for the cocktail.
2. As a muddler in the kitchen, he often mixed various herbs and spices to enhance the flavors of his dishes.
3. She was known as a muddler in her team, often mixing up facts and ideas during discussions.
4. Using a muddler made it easy to combine the ingredients and extract their natural flavors.
5. His reputation as a muddler of opinions often led to confusion in group projects.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muddler>