

MUFF

Meaning: MUFF (verb): to mishandle or fumble something, especially in a sports context, resulting in a failure to execute a play or catch.

1. The quarterback's pass was a complete muff, leading to an interception.
2. She felt embarrassed after her muffed attempt to catch the ball during practice.
3. The artist decided to use a muff technique to create a softer effect in her painting.
4. Despite the initial muff, the team managed to recover and win the game.
5. He wrapped his hands around the muff to keep warm as he waited for the bus.
6. She wore a cozy muff to keep her hands warm during the chilly winter walk.
7. The artist used a mix of colors to create a soft, muffled effect in the painting.
8. He realized he had made a muff of the presentation when he misspoke the data.
9. The sound of the music was muffed by the thick walls of the old theater.
10. As a child, she loved to play with her stuffed animals, often referring to them as her "muff family."

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muff>