

MUFFLE

Meaning: To muffle means to deaden or reduce the intensity of sound or to suppress an expression.

1. The thick blankets helped to muffle the sounds of the storm outside.
2. He tried to muffle his laughter during the serious meeting.
3. The walls of the recording studio were designed to muffle any outside noise.
4. To muffle the harshness of the music, she adjusted the equalizer settings.
5. She spoke softly, hoping to muffle her words from the prying ears nearby.
6. She tried to muffle her laughter during the serious meeting.
7. The thick carpet helped to muffle the sound of footsteps in the hallway.
8. He wrapped the fragile gift in layers of tissue paper to muffle any potential damage.
9. To avoid waking the baby, she spoke in a muffle voice while cooking in the kitchen.
10. The heavy curtains were drawn to muffle the noise from the busy street outside.
11. She wrapped the fragile item in a blanket to muffle any noise during transport.
12. To preserve the serenity of the library, they installed soundproofing panels to muffle conversations.
13. He spoke softly, trying to muffle his voice so as not to disturb the sleeping baby.
14. The fog seemed to muffle the sounds of the city, creating an eerie silence.
15. The thick blanket helped to muffle the sound of the storm outside.
16. He spoke in a low voice, trying to muffle his excitement.
17. The walls were designed to muffle the noise between the two apartments.
18. She wrapped the fragile object in layers of cloth to muffle any impact.
19. To muffle their laughter, they covered their mouths with their hands.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muffle>