

MUGGY

Meaning: Muggy refers to weather that is oppressively humid and warm, making the air feel thick and uncomfortable.

1. The air was so muggy that it felt as if we were walking through a thick blanket.
2. After the storm passed, the humidity left the city feeling muggy and uncomfortable.
3. On muggy days, I prefer to stay indoors where it's cool and dry.
4. The forecast predicted a muggy afternoon, perfect for lounging by the pool.
5. She wiped the sweat off her forehead as the muggy weather made everything sticky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muggy>