

MULBERRY-FACED

Meaning: Mulberry-faced refers to having a deep reddish-purple complexion or hue, often used to describe skin tone or color in art and nature.

1. The artist painted a striking portrait of a mulberry-faced woman, capturing her unique beauty.
2. As the sun set, the sky transformed into a mulberry-faced canvas, rich with deep purples and reds.
3. The village was known for its mulberry-faced children, their cheeks flushed from playing outside all day.
4. During the festival, she wore a dress that matched her mulberry-faced complexion, drawing admiring glances.
5. He often joked that his mulberry-faced expressions revealed his every emotion before he even spoke.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mulberry-faced>