

MULETEER

Meaning: A muletier is a person who tends to and guides mules, especially in transporting goods or navigating difficult terrain.

1. The muletier skillfully guided the pack animals through the rugged mountain trails.
2. As the sun set, the muletier set up camp, ensuring the mules were well-fed and secure for the night.
3. In many remote regions, the muletier plays a crucial role in transporting goods across difficult terrain.
4. With years of experience, the muletier knew exactly how to keep the mules calm in challenging situations.
5. During the expedition, the muletier was praised for his knowledge of the best routes to take through the wilderness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muleteer>