

MULL

Meaning: MULL (verb): to think deeply or carefully about something, often for an extended period of time.

1. I need some time to mull over the decision before making a final choice.
2. After a long discussion, they decided to mull the proposal further before taking action.
3. She likes to mull her wine with spices during the cold winter months.
4. It's important to mull your options carefully to ensure you make the right choice.
5. As he walked through the park, he began to mull the events of the past week.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mull>