

MULLOCK

Meaning: Mullock refers to waste material or debris, especially earth or rock, left over from mining or other excavations.

1. The old mill was surrounded by a thick layer of mullock from years of mining activity.
2. After the storm, the riverbank was littered with a mix of debris and mullock.
3. The geologist explained how the mullock could provide clues about the area's geological history.
4. They spent the afternoon shoveling the mullock into bags for analysis at the lab.
5. Local farmers often complained about the excessive amount of mullock left on their fields after the excavation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mullock>