

MULLOID

Meaning: MULLOID refers to a group of fish belonging to the family Mullidae, commonly known as goatfish, characterized by their distinct coloration and features, often found in tropical marine environments.

1. The mulloid characteristics of the fish made it stand out in the vibrant coral reef.
2. In her research, she focused on the mulloid variations found in the tropical waters.
3. He was fascinated by the mulloid features of the new species discovered during the expedition.
4. The artist used a mulloid palette to create a soothing and harmonious landscape.
5. During the documentary, the narrator explained the significance of mulloid traits in marine biology.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mulloid>