

MULTILOQUENCE

Meaning: Multiloquence refers to an excessive or verbose use of words that can obscure meaning and hinder understanding.

1. His multiloquence made it difficult for his audience to follow his main argument.
2. The professor's reputation for multiloquence often left students confused rather than enlightened.
3. In a world dominated by brevity, her habit of multiloquence was both refreshing and overwhelming.
4. Multiloquence can sometimes mask the simplicity of a profound truth.
5. Despite his multiloquence, he struggled to convey the essential message effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/multiloquence>