

MULTIPLEX

Meaning: Multiplex (noun): a cinema complex with multiple screens showing different films simultaneously.

1. The new multiplex in town features ten different screens showing a variety of films.
2. During the summer, the multiplex is always packed with families seeking entertainment on hot afternoons.
3. She enjoyed the convenience of the multiplex, where she could catch a movie and grab dinner all in one location.
4. The multiplex offered a special discount on tickets for students every Tuesday evening.
5. After the renovations, the multiplex boasted state-of-the-art sound systems and luxurious seating.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/multiplex>