

MULTIPLIABLE

Meaning: Multipliable refers to a number or entity that can be multiplied by another number in mathematical operations.

1. The concept of a multipliable number is fundamental in understanding multiplication.
2. In mathematics, any integer can be considered as a multipliable entity within certain operations.
3. Teachers often emphasize that fractions are also multipliable, which helps in solving complex problems.
4. When learning about factors, students discover that some numbers are inherently multipliable by others.
5. In programming, defining multipliable variables can streamline calculations in algorithms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/multipliable>