

MULTIPLY

Meaning: Multiply: to increase a number or quantity by a specified factor or to reproduce in number or quantity.

1. When you multiply two fractions, you simply multiply the numerators and the denominators.
2. The scientist explained how bacteria can multiply rapidly under optimal conditions.
3. To find the area of a rectangle, you need to multiply its length by its width.
4. In nature, a single pair of rabbits can multiply into a large colony in just a few months.
5. The teacher encouraged her students to multiply their efforts to achieve better results.
6. She learned how to multiply fractions in her math class.
7. The gardener hoped to multiply the number of flowers in the garden by planting more seeds.
8. As the business grew, they needed to multiply their efforts to meet the increasing demand.
9. To solve the problem, you need to multiply the two variables to find the correct answer.
10. Scientists believed that the bacteria could multiply rapidly under the right conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/multiply>