

MULTITUDINOUS

Meaning: Multitudinous: existing in great numbers; numerous or diverse.

1. The artist's gallery was filled with multitudinous interpretations of the same theme.
2. During the festival, the street was alive with multitudinous voices and vibrant colors.
3. Her multitudinous ideas transformed the project into something far more innovative than expected.
4. The ocean teemed with multitudinous species, each contributing to the rich tapestry of marine life.
5. In the library, the multitudinous shelves groaned under the weight of countless volumes of knowledge.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/multitudinous>