

MUMBLE

Meaning: Mumble: to speak in a low or indistinct voice, making it difficult to hear or understand the words.

1. She tends to mumble her words when she's nervous.
2. During the lecture, I could barely hear the professor because he kept mumbling.
3. He mumbled an apology before quickly walking away.
4. The child mumbled under his breath, not wanting to be heard.
5. It's hard to understand her when she mumbles instead of speaking clearly.
6. He tends to mumble when he's nervous, making it hard to understand him.
7. The speaker's voice was barely audible as he began to mumble his words.
8. She caught him mumbling to himself, lost in thought about the upcoming exam.
9. During the meeting, several attendees began to mumble their objections under their breath.
10. His mumble was so quiet that I had to lean in closer to hear what he was saying.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mumble>