

MUMBLER

Meaning: MUMBLER: a person who speaks in a low, indistinct voice, making it difficult for others to hear or understand.

1. The mumblor quietly spoke his thoughts, barely audible to those nearby.
2. During the meeting, the mumblor struggled to express his ideas clearly.
3. Her mumbling made it difficult for her friends to understand what she was saying.
4. He was known as a mumblor, often trailing off at the end of his sentences.
5. In a room full of chatter, the mumblor's voice was easily drowned out.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mumbler>