

MUMMIFICATION

Meaning: Mummification is the process of preserving a deceased body by removing internal organs and drying it, particularly practiced in ancient Egypt to prepare for the afterlife.

1. Mummification was practiced by ancient Egyptians as a way to preserve the bodies of the deceased for the afterlife.
2. The elaborate process of mummification involved removing internal organs and drying the body with natron.
3. Researchers discovered new evidence of mummification techniques used by ancient cultures around the world.
4. Mummification not only aimed to preserve the physical form but also held deep spiritual significance in many societies.
5. The study of mummification offers insights into the beliefs and customs of civilizations long gone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mummification>