

MUMMIFIED

Meaning: MUMMIFIED: preserved through drying or embalming processes, typically resulting in a lifeless, preserved state, often associated with ancient practices.

1. The archaeologists discovered a mummified body in the ancient tomb, perfectly preserved for thousands of years.
2. In the horror movie, the mummified remains came to life, seeking revenge on those who disturbed its eternal rest.
3. She found a mummified cat in the attic, a remnant of the previous owners' strange rituals.
4. The museum's exhibit featured a mummified pharaoh, captivating visitors with its intricate wrappings and historical significance.
5. After years of research, the scientist published a paper detailing the chemicals used in the mummified remains of the long-lost civilization.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mummified>