

MUMP

Meaning: Mump (verb): to make a low, muffled sound or to engage in a state of quiet relaxation.

1. The old cat let out a loud mump when it was startled by the sudden noise.
2. After a long week of work, he needed a quiet weekend to mump and relax at home.
3. The children began to mump and complain when they realized the trip was canceled.
4. She gave a little mump of joy when she saw her favorite book on the shelf.
5. As the team continued to lose, the players began to mump about their strategy during practice.
6. The children in the village had to stay home from school due to a mump outbreak.
7. Despite the initial concerns, the mump vaccination program significantly reduced cases in the region.
8. She couldn't attend the party because her younger brother was recovering from a mild case of the mump.
9. He reminisced about the days when mump was a common childhood illness, now mostly forgotten.
10. The doctor explained that mump can lead to serious complications if not treated properly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mump>