

MUMPS

Meaning: Mumps is a contagious viral infection characterized by swelling of the salivary glands, often preventable by vaccination.

1. Mumps is a contagious viral infection that can lead to swelling of the salivary glands.
2. After receiving the vaccine, the risk of contracting mumps significantly decreases.
3. He recalled the discomfort of having mumps during his childhood.
4. The recent outbreak of mumps in the community has raised concerns among parents.
5. Health officials are urging vaccinations to prevent future cases of mumps.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mumps>