

MURICOID

Meaning: MURICOID refers to a family of marine snails characterized by diverse shell shapes and colors, belonging to the order Neogastropoda.

1. The muricoid family of snails exhibits a fascinating array of shell shapes and colors.
2. Scientists are studying muricoid mollusks to better understand their ecological roles in marine environments.
3. The muricoid species found in the coral reefs play a crucial part in the health of the ecosystem.
4. Many collectors are drawn to the unique patterns of muricoid shells, making them highly sought after.
5. Research on muricoid feeding habits reveals their adaptability to various underwater habitats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muricoid>